Chapter 1 by Story Wars

This story was created so we can bring gratitude to the most valiant, the most awesome, and the most hardcore storm trooper ever. FN-2199. Or, better known as 'Nines' by his companions. He (Supposedly) died when he fought valiantly against the vile traitor FN-2817 or 'Fin' as the vile creature calls himself.

Nines did not turn around when he saw the traitor. He did not run when he saw the traitor wielding the most terrifying weapon in the galaxy.

Darth Vader's lightsaber.

He fought and died, fighting for what he believed was right.

So, let us all give our thanks to the most valiant warrior that has ever lived. He goes by many names, TR-8R, FN-2199, Nines, but we all know what he did for us.

Salute.

way he fought. The way that he spun his spun baton in the heat of battle, looking the traitor straight in the eyes, a look that says, "I am not afraid." That look he gave him right before he fought, how he spun his baton beautifully through the masquerade of the battle there. May the afterlife exalt him for the glorious person that he is. Please, Noble Nines, hear our praise! Accept our thanks! My eyes are getting wet thinking about the wandering white warrior we call Noble Nines.

Thank you, from the bottom of my sanguine soul.

Chapter 3 by Dan_K

Yes, he was different. But was he different enough?

That is the question.
